FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

What is the difference between the V2 forms A, B, and C and which one needs to be completed?	The V2 forms A, B, and C each pertain to different types of Beneficial Owners and should be selected based on the final beneficiary. Qualifying non-resident individuals must use the V2A, qualifying non-resident companies must use the V2B, and all other qualifying non-resident persons (not being an individual or a company) must use the V2C.
Can Non-U.S. financial institutions benefit from Relief At Source for their underlying holders?	To be eligible to reclaim through Relief At Source all institutions involved in the payment between DTC and the final Beneficial Owner (not including the final BO) must be an Irish Qualified Intermediary (QI) or domiciled in the United States. If one of more of the institutions are not an Irish QI and are outside of the U.S., exemption cannot be applied At-Source. For example, if the DTC participant is a Canadian Bank without Irish QI status they cannot participate in relief at source. However, the Beneficial Owner may still be eligible to reclaim through the Long Form process.
Can I submit a trust agreement in lieu of a POA signed by the Beneficial Owner?	Yes, but a limited POA signed by the participant must be accompanied by the trust agreement.
Does the Long Form process have a minimum position requirement per Beneficial Owner?	No, however, there is a minimum fee of $25 per Beneficial Owner which may be waived on an exceptional basis for clients reclaiming less than $50. In such instances a fee of 50% of the reclaimed amount will be applied.
What is the Statute of Limitations for filing Irish reclaims?	It is 4 years from the end of the year in which the dividend is paid. Claims received after our submission deadline will be filed in good faith.
What happens if the participant does not make a CA web election within the specified CA web election window?	All shares will be withheld at the 25% tax rate. You will have an opportunity to file Long Form if the shares are withheld.
Will GlobeTax accept claims filed directly to them by Beneficial Owners?	GlobeTax only accepts claims filed by the DTC Participant who was holding the securities through DTC and only to the extent that DTC has reported these holdings to us as valid record date holdings. Beneficial Owners are required to file their claims through the custody chain to the DTC Participant of record. All claims not received directly from the DTC Participant will be returned to the Beneficial Owner.
